XPO is Approved as a TSA Screening Facility

New Air Cargo Screening Directive: Effective August 1, 2010 - XPO is fully certified by the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) to handle all of your mail and cargo. Under new federal mandates, effective August 1, 2010, all cargo, including mail, traveling on commercial passenger aircraft must be screened. XPO is a Certified Cargo Screening Facility (CCSF). If you are not an XPO customer, to avoid mailing delays, make sure your current supplier is approved. XPO is also one of only 19 USPS Postal Qualified Wholesaler and is GSA certified. More information about new air cargo screening requirements can be found at www.TSA.gov, or contact your XPO representative. XPO is NOT charging any additional security surcharges to our customers.

USPS Rate Increase Updates

Although the specific rates are not yet available, the projected announcement date is November 2, 2010 for International Services.
