XPO News

XPO will be open for pickups and the processing of your mail on Presidents Day, February 15, 2010. However, all USPS facilities will be closed in observance of the holiday.

Industry News

Mail delivery to Haiti:

The USPS International Bureau has advised that it is monitoring the situation in Haiti very closely following the tragic earthquake which struck the country on January 12, 2010. A temporary hold on all mail destined to the nation of Haiti is currently in place until air transport and ground infrastructure issues are resolved and the nations postal service is operating again.

Please contact XPO before sending any mail to Haiti in the near future.

Postal strikes/weather issues:

Please look for XPO's Postal Advisors that are emailed to you anytime there are events that might affect the delivery of your mail. In January, XPO sent out advisors regarding an industrial action update in Australia, severe weather conditions in the UK and customs strikes in Chile.
